Time: One or two afternoons a week leading an extracurricular activity for several months during the 2023-24 school year. Exact schedule to be determined based on applicant availability and program need.

Job Description: Meridian Academy is a wonderful and distinctive learning community. We are an economically diverse, intentionally small, independent secondary school in the Jamaica Plain neighborhood of Boston, MA. Our students have broad and deep interests in the arts.

Meridian is seeking a teacher to guide students as they learn about idea and script development, acting, videography, and video editing. Applicants must be able to teach in person at our school in Jamaica Plain.

Share your passion and process with students who are interested in learning about filmmaking as an artistic medium. Products can be simple as long as the students are engaged and learning throughout the process.

Salary:

$40 - $50/hr depending on experience.

Responsibilities:

- Mentor a group of middle and high school students helping them learn the technical and aesthetic aspects of filmmaking from conception to completion.
- Meet with students one afternoon a week from 2 - 4 PM on Wednesdays or 3:30 - 5:30 PM for other weekdays.

Qualifications:

- At least 3 years experience in filmmaking including student and/or professional activities.
- Some experience working with middle and/or high school students with the ability to break the needed skills down for students.
- Flexible, independent, and collaborative.
- You have an appreciation for kids aged 11-18 and for their ideas. You have fun working with them and believe that each has the ability to contribute and improve in their efforts.
- Complete a CORI check.
